Henry W. Grady Dead.

ATLANTA, Ga., December 23.—Henry W. Grady died of pneumonia at twenty minutes before four o'clock this morning. At two o'clock in the afternoon of Christmas day the funeral ceremonies will take place. The family have concluded that the body shall rest in the First Methodist church from 9 o'clock in the morning until the funeral hour. On Thursday special memorial services will be held at the new capitol in which the people, the ... and the societies of which he was a member will take part. To-day all of the courts adjourned and many city buildings are draped in mourning.

... Boston.

BOSTON, December 23.—Hon. P. A. Collins when informed of Editor Grady's death said: I am stunned by the news. He was in my judgment the most brilliant man in the United States. He had the solid qualities, good judgment, ... perception of public needs and ... ardent patriotism. The republic may well mourn the untimely taking off of this as brilliant and patriotic man as ever sprung from its soil."

... A. Lane, president of the ... association, whose guest Grady was at their recent dinner said: Boston will share in Atlanta's sorrow. ... Grady's short stay in the city made many friends. I don't think I ever came in contact with a southern man who made such a pleasent impression on me."

NEW YORK, December 21.—The New England society celebrated to-night the anniversary of the landing of the pilgrims. Many notables were present, ... General Sherman, General ..., Chauncey M. Depew, Clinton B. Fisk, C. P. Huntington, Dr. Guzman, of Nicaragua, and others. In replying to the toast "Unsolved Problems," Mr. Depew referred to the death of Henry W. Grady. He said:

Thirty years ago Robert Toombs, of Georgia, one of the ablest and most brilliant defenders of slavery, said in his place in the United States Senate that he would yet call the roll of his bondmen at the foot of Bunker Hill monument. To-day his slaves are citizens and voters. [Cheers.]

The Fight a Draw.

BRUSSELS, December 23.—The fight between Jem Smith of England and Frank P. Slavin the Australian champion took place this morning on private grounds three miles from Brussels. There was much wrangling from the outset and owing to the outrageous conduct of Smith's party ... the conclusion of the fourteenth round the referee declared the fight a draw and refused to remain on the ground. Smith's party evidently saw that their man would be beaten and broke in and interfered with the fair progress of the fight.

Slavin forced the fighting at the start hitting Smith several times on the chest and head in the first two rounds. The men then fell together and when Slavin rose he was bleeding from the mouth.

In the third round Smith got home with his right and left and in return was knocked down by Slavin.

The fourth round was marked by hard fighting.

In the sixth Slavin landed a terrific blow on one of Smith's eyes.

Seventh round—Smith fought Slavin to the ropes where a crowd of Smith's friends kicked Slavin, who however remained silent.

Eighth round—Slavin again knocked Smith down.

Ninth round—A mob surrounded the ring and struck Slavin several times.

Eleventh round—Slavin again knocked his opponent down.

Thirteenth round—Smith's friends again struck in but their man was once more knocked down.

Fourteenth round—Slavin protested against the treatment he was receiving and appealed to the referee for fair play. His appeal was greeted with derision by Smith's friends, who shouted "police" and bolted from the ground. Slavin remained in the ring and Smith, who had left when his friends ran away, returned. The referee then said it was impossible to secure fair treatment for Slavin, and declared the fight a draw. Slavin was full of fight and wanted to finish.

The ... Nominations.

WASHINGTON, December, 23.—In the three weeks ended on Saturday, the president has sent to the senate 1429 messages containing the nominations, (including army and navy appointments) of about 1600 persons. When the senate adjourned on Saturday there had been made public the confirmations of about 1000 of these nominations. A great majority of them were postmasters.

Of the diplomatic nominations the following have not been confirmed: George Maney, minister to Paraguay and Uruguay; J. G. R. Pitkin, minister to the Argentine Republic; Clark E. Carr, minister to Denmark. Other important nominations that went over until after the recess are those of Roosevelt and Thompson, civil service commissioners; Taylor, railroad commissioner; Holliday, commissioner of customs; Bates, commissioner of navigation; Morgan, commissioner of Indian affairs and Dorchester, superintendent of Indian schools.

... Short Line.

BOSTON, December 23.—President Adams of the Union Pacific says that the Oregon Short Line Consolidated company has now a clear field with no floating debt and its account with the Union Pacific has been discharged through a recent settlement under which the Union Pacific took bonds for the advances made. The Oregon Short Line will suffer a loss of half a million dollars this year through the Oregon Northern, but will nevertheless earn a surplus over all interest charges. "The deficit next year," said Adams "will be much smaller if not wholly wiped out. The Oregon Short Line has got through its trials. The country through which it runs is growing rapidly. The Union Pacific would not to-day be earning any surplus over its interest charges but for the business done with the Oregon Short Line."

"The entire Union Pacific system will only build 200 miles additional road next year," said Adams, "145 miles in the Oregon Short Line system to Pioche, thirty-five miles to connect the Cheyenne and Northern with the Elk Horn division of the Chicago and Northwestern and twenty miles to make some connections in Kansas. All the stories now current in the newspapers as to plans and extensions and the purchases of the Union Pacific on the Pacific slope are pure inventions and absolutely without basis."

Delivered to the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, December 23.—There was delivered to the United States treasury this morning a large package with the following inscription: "Contents of the cash compartments of the safe of the sergeant-at arms of the house of representatives, sealed for the purpose of delivery to the treasury of the United States government, pursuant to a resolution of the house, adopted December 21."

It is signed by Sergeant at-Arms Leedom, Congressman Adams of the Silcott committee, Assistant Treasurer Whelpley and the two expert accountants who looked over the contents of the package. It contains upwards of $8300 in notes, checks and other securities, representing the money left by the absconding cashier, Silcott.

Ways and Means Committee.

WASHINGTON, December 23.—The ways and means committee were engaged to-day in consideration of the McKinley administration of customs bill. The committee expect to complete the preparation of the bill before the hearings on the tariff begin.

The minority of the committee insist upon hearing those who favor the reduction of the tariff as well as those who favor the ... schedule. The committee therefore, when it meets after Christmas, will hear them both.

A Fatal Quarrel.

SALT LAKE, December 23.—At North Point yesterday Charles Gillman shot and instantly killed Joseph Walkey, a sheep-herder. The men had quarreled about a herd of sheep, which Gillman alleged were trespassing on his land. Walkey fired at Gillman with a rifle at three rods distant, and then Gillman fired with a shotgun with the result stated. Gillman came to this city and delivered himself to the United States marshal.

UNDER THE WHEELS.

Saturday Night's Accident on the Manitou Springs Road.

Jerry O'Leary, a Stone Mason, the Victim of the Wheels.

Run Over and Crushed to Death by a Livery Hack.

Serious Accident to a Party of Colorado Springs People.

The rumor of a fatal accident near Manitou which reached the GAZETTE Saturday night proved to be based on facts. Jerry O'Leary, a stone mason of this city was run over by a wagon containing a party of young people from this city, and his head crushed. The vehicle later overturned and the young people were thrown out, some of them receiving quite serious injuries. The facts in the case, as related by one of the young men, are as follows: A party of young ladies and gentlemen of the city had been giving an entertainment at Manitou. There were ten of them and they engaged the hack which the Rock Island depot hotel uses for transporting its guests over the hill, to convey them to Manitou and back. The rig is quite heavy, having a seat for the driver in front and two long seats facing each other for the occupants. After the entertainment the party was given a supper by some ladies at Manitou and about midnight started to return home. The driver, whose name is W. F. Perry, and who is an employe of the El Paso Livery company, spoke to them as they got into the vehicle but they noticed nothing wrong with him. After noticing some wild driving one of the young men spoke to the driver, and he replied, but a few minutes later the horses started and it was evident to the people ... that they were beyond the driver's control. This was just after crossing the little bridge opposite the lime kiln, and few minutes later Mr. Seymour one of the party, was thrown from the vehicle. A few minutes later Mr. Will Francis who had gotten up to go to the driver, was jerked from his footing and fell out. He received some severe bruises. The team continued to dash ... and when not far beyond General Adams' gate O'Leary was struck and twenty-five yards farther on the vehicle overturned, having struck an embankment. In the vehicle at that time was Mrs. Alice Baker, Miss P... of Massachusetts, Miss Collings, Miss Ashby, Mrs. Cinq Mars, Mrs. Bosworth and Mr. E... All got up that could and it was found that Miss Baker was the only one that had received serious injury. She was lying unconscious, with a scalp wound in the back of her head. A few minutes later the body of O'Leary was found. Assistance was procured from General Adams' house and Miss Baker removed there, where she remained until Sunday afternoon. Owing to kind attention she is now quite recovered. Word was sent to Coroner Davis and carriages procured to bring the remainder of the party home. Mr. Francis states that upon arriving at the scene he examined the body of O'Leary and found the blood still spurting from the wounds in the head, although the heart had stopped beating. No one in the vehicle at the time knew of the accident to O'Leary. After the driver of the hack had gotten his vehicle straightened up he came on home the young people refusing to ride with him. Deputy Coroner Will Davis went over and got the body Sunday morning. Yesterday morning an inquest was begun into the death, with the following jury: W. D. Marlow, W. A. Davis, W. H. Barbour, Frank Peck and John Simms. Three witnesses were examined, Mr. Francis, who testified to the facts given above, Mr. Sawin, of the El Paso Livery company, who testified to seeing Perry drinking at Manitou in the evening while waiting for his party, and W. F. Perry, the driver himself. He admitted taking drinks while at Manitou, but did not think he was drunk. The jurymen think his story is contradictory, and that after testifying that he saw the body lying in the road failed to locate it on the right side. After viewing the body the jury adjourned until this morning, when the evidence will be completed.

The funeral of Jerry O'Leary occurred from Davis' undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev A. C. Peck officiating. Just one week ago the deceased paid his initiation fee in the Colorado Springs Stone Masons' Association, and that body bore the expense of the funeral. The members of the association attended the funeral in a body, and showed the dead brother every respect. The body was interred in the association's lots in Evergreen cemetery. Mr. Frizzelle of Manitou, for whom the deceased was working, brought all his employes over in a body. O'Leary was about 47 years of age, powerfully built and a good workman, although given to drink. He was met on the road by two young men of Manitou who knew him, but five minutes before the accident occurred and they state he was not very drunk, although he was drinking. He leaves a divorced wife and three children in Texas. The wounds were all about the head, being similar to those received by the Mexican killed on the streets two weeks ago.

Christmas Entertainments.

Unless a snow falls during the next twelve hours Santa Claus will have to come this year on his bicycle. The lack of a white Christmas, however, will not prevent the generous old fellow from getting here, however, nor will it prevent the various Sunday schools of the city from preparing entertainments for the young people. So far as reported there entertainments will be as follows. ... M. E., two ... this evening with a musical and literary program; United Presbyterian an ... for the little ones at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the church ... The Midget.

Manager Uffner yesterday afternoon tendered a reception to the physicians ... of the city and a number of invited guests that they might see Miss Lucia Zarate. The reception was held in the parlor of the Alamo hotel and at the hour named the room was well filled. All present agreed that the young woman was the smallest human being that they had ever seen and nearly all had frequently seen the Tom Thumb party and other well known dwarfs. She is of Mexican birth and dark, like all that race. She stands less than twenty inches in height, and weighs about five pounds. During the afternoon a little girl of six years held her in her lap like a doll. She is 27 years of age, or will be the second day of next January. Accompanying her, are her father and mother, both quite large, and her brother and sister, both well developed young people. She speaks four languages, English, but indifferently. During the exhibition she was not in a very good humor, owing to disappointment about a carriage ride, and she did not mind letting her visitors know it. Beginning to-day a public exhibition will be given of this greatest of living curiosities in the city hall. The children should be taken to see her.

The city seems to be full of petty thieves, and Sunday night three robberies were reported. Tramps called at the Alta Vista about 7 o'clock and asked for food. A few minutes later it was discovered that an overcoat and a valise containing clothing were missing from the hallway. The latter has since been found in the Monument creek bottom, with the clothing missing. About the same time the freight depot of the Rio Grande railroad was broken into by smashing the doors and windows with car links. After breaking open the money drawer and ransacking generally without finding anything of value, the thieves carried away a drawer of papers. They were of value to no one but the company, and Mr. Wildman. Nothing has since been seen of the drawer or the papers. During the evening a tent in the rear of the street car barn was entered and an overcoat taken. Police Captain Chapman and Officer Woods made a search of the railroad ... and outskirts of the town during the night but failed to discover any "hobos." A number of the merchants of the city are complaining of thieving from their counters. Yesterday four bottles of perfumery and other small articles were taken from F. E. Robinson's counters.

The next attraction at the opera house is Hoyt's roaring farce comedy, "Bunch of Keys," which comes next Saturday night. The following is from the San Francisco Evening Post and is quite complimentary to the company producing the play: "If a comparison was drawn between the present "Bunch of Keys" company and that which was playing at the Bush-street a few years ago, it would be favorable to the present company. The company is decidedly clever, and though the piece is noisy there seems to exist an impression in the minds of each of the company that the success of the play depends upon the work that each individual can accomplish. Dumas makes as good a Grimes as did Canfield, while Louis Raymond as Teddie makes quite a hit. The rest of the company are bright and active. The audience was large and seemed to enjoy the play as heartily as when it was first presented here. An excellent thing about this company, they act with a vim, and there is no time throughout the three acts when the fun is allowed to relax."

The prisoners in the county jail were all prepared for another jail break on Sunday night, but luckily the plans were frustrated. During Saturday night they were heard at work and Sunday morning Under Sheriff Saxton and deputies made a search of the jail. It was discovered that the bars in the south cell had been cut and that a powerful leverage had been secured by breaking up the iron "donaker." Four saws were found, and an attempt was to have been made similar to the one in November. One of the saws was found in the hat lining of Louis Washington, who had only been in two days. He was very much surprised when it was discovered and wondered how it got there.

Lucia Zarate's ranch is one of the largest in Old Mexico. It is estimated that her small limbs would carry her over it in six months if she walked steadily twelve hours each day.

Mr. E. F. Draper, of the treasurers' office of the Midland railroad, left last night for his old home in Missouri to spend the holidays.

W. F. McKeehan's rooster in his ad. this morning means plenty of poultry in the market for Christmas.

Roy Morton drew the $40 hat rack raffled at Earle's last night.

Eugene Field contributes a Christmas story to the current issue of America, entitled "The Holy Cross." It purports to be a legend of Colorado, which accounts for the appearance of the symbol of Christianity that gleams in eternal snow upon the brow of the mountain to which it gives its name in that state. Mr. Field's fancy is that it marks the resting place of the Wandering Jew, who found forgiveness, and was buried at that spot. The same number of America contains a cartoon by Thomas Nast, entitled "Uncle Sam's Christmas Box," the box in question being a ballot [illegible] box.

Mr. Cleveland's remonstrance against the constant begging he is made the subject of is not a matter for surprise. The wonder is that it has been delayed so long. No one claims that Mr. Cleveland is a very rich man and therefore naturally expected to give freely of his abundance. Nearly every applicant for aid applies solely on the ground that he is an ex-president and the fact that he may be financially unable, as he undoubtedly is, to [illegible] all demands, or even more than a very small proportion of them, is not given the slightest [illegible] ation. Mr. Cleveland is no doubt, as he says, anxious to give to all worthy objects brought to his notice, but the barrier which a limited pocket book presents is not one which his heart can overcome. As it is he gives to a great many that he is less able to contribute to than hundreds of other men. It is to be hoped that Mr. Cleveland's late remarks to the committee from the Woman's hospital will be read generally and remembered with good results.

The senatorial contest in Ohio grows interesting. Calvin S. Brice [illegible] not have the [illegible] sailing his friends predicted for him. The protest against his election from some of the party leaders is formidable, to say the least. Allen W. Thurman, Converse and Powell are among those who oppose his election on the ground that if Ohio is to send a citizen of New York to the senate it might be well to choose some other man like Judge Hoadly or Thomas Ewing, both of whom are just as willing as Brice to be chosen, and either one would probably make a better senator. Brice in the meantime seems to be on a train which allows nothing that money can buy to stand in its way. Allen O. Myers has just come out with an affidavit in which he claims that Sim Donovan has offered him a house and lot as a bribe in order to silence his opposition to Brice. This is in a line with a recent statement of one of the Brice managers, who declared that they were on a through train and nothing could stop them. Presumably he means nothing that money could buy. Ohio's reputation for corrupt political contests does not improve.

HENRY W. GRADY.

With the words of his eloquent and able speech at the Boston banquet still echoing through the land comes the announcement of the death of Henry W. Grady, editor of the Atlanta Constitution. His loss will be severely felt, not in the south alone but throughout the country.

Mr. Grady's death closes a career of a great promise which had only just commenced. He was ambitious, intellectually great, a hard worker and had a natural capacity for leadership which would undoubtedly have brought to him unusual honors.

Mr. Grady has not always seemed entirely consistent in his treatment of the race question, a subject on which he has often been heard. There has, however, been generally apparent through all of his utterances, and especially those of late years, an earnest desire for the settlement of all trouble between the south and north. The prejudices among which he lived were not without their influence upon him, and he sometimes showed them. But when those prejudices carried him away, it was always certain that they won against the opposing influences of a big, generous heart.

His late speech at the Boston banquet was a fitting close to his career. His eloquent message from a new south which he had done so much to make will not soon be forgotten.

[illegible] Replies to [illegible]

LISBON, December 23.—The Portuguese minister of foreign affairs, Gomez, in his reply to the note from Lord Salisbury relative to the movements of Major Pinto, in Africa, says the major did nothing to warrant the accusations made against him. He did not order an attack on the British flag, but merely repulsed the hostile natives among whose baggage after the fight three British flags were found. In conclusion Gomez asks Salisbury to await further action.

[illegible] Market.

NEW YORK, December 23.—The apathy of speculators was to day illustrated by the limited fluctuations in the stocks of the regular list, the great majority of which were traded in over a range of not more than one-half per cent. The market opened strong, and M[illegible] Pacific led the market in both activity and strength but later the improvement was all lost. In the afternoon sugar was attacked and dropped three per cent before the movement c[illegible] to a halt. Later in the afternoon when the rates on call reached nine per cent the traders became bearish, resulting in a shaking off of prices all over the list, though declines were on the same limited scale as early advances. The close was dull and rather heavy with sugar at, but a shade better than the lowest price of the day.

We take pleasure in bringing to your notice the celebrated

Colorado Mountain Sage Compound.

These valuable herbs are gathered in the canons of the Rocks in Colorado at an altitude of from 6 to 10,000 feet, and having been tested for several years, cannot have too much said for their contents. It is a valuable remedy and a sure cure and preventative for

Mountain, Typhoid and Bilious Fevers, Ague, Malaria,

And any trouble arising from a DISORDERED LIVER or STOMACH. It has been used with great success in RHEUMATISM, of both chronic and inflammatory nature. It may be used externally as well as internally. In severe cases of FEVER it is almost invaluable for bathing purposes. Ask your druggist for it.

DON'T PAY RENT.

We are selling our installment houses very rapidly, and many men who have paid out hundreds of dollars for rent are now applying the money toward paying for their own houses. To buy on installments is good policy, even if the property did not advance, for it enables the buyer to save his money, but there is a steady and sure advance in value on every foot of property in this city. W. B. Merrow Sarg't Signal Corps.

Go to the co cert at the First M. E church to-morrow night.

Mr. A. B. Moulton, real estate agent for the Denver and Santa Fe, with headquarters in Denver, was a guest in the city yesterday.

Mr. J. A. Bower is the local agent for the Singer sewing machine, and has his h. 'quarters at 123 South Tejon street See his new ad

The Christmas drunks started in quite brisk yesterday. Judge Kinsley fined two in the morning and had two more on deck in the afternoon

Union Christmas services will be held in the Congregational church Wednesday at 11 a. m The sermon will be preached by the Rev J. B. Black

A ranch team took fright on Nevada avenue last night and wound up by smashing the wagon attached at the corner of Cheyenne avenue and Weber street.

One of the workmen at the bank block fell from a scaffolding in front of the building yesterday, a distance of about ten feet. He struck on some stones, but was not seriously injured.

A grand ball is announced to take place at Wheeler's hall, Manitou, tomorrow evening, given for the benefit of the band of that city. Tickets are only $1 and there should be a large attendance.

One of the finest Christmas entertainments ever given in this city will occur at the First M. E. church to-morrow evening. A full orchestra will furnish music, and everything points to a success

In the window of Fairley's furniture store is hung a handsome painting, representing a stag drinking. The work is by Mrs. William... of this city and is a present to the building fund of the First Baptist church, for the benefit of which it will be sold.

H. T. O'Brien has just turned out of his n... ...b harness establish...t one of the neatest sets of little harness ever used in this city. They were made for Dr. Bussey's t...m of Shetland ponies and are beauties. Y...erday the doctor received a miniature buggy through Welles & Shields and c...ed something of a sensation as he drove through the city.

He was an officer in the late war and belonged to one of the old and wealthy families of Reading Pa. During the ... panic the two large b...ks in which he was extensively interested failed and since that time he has been engaged in ...ailroad ...

One of the pleasantest sights in this city just at present is at Stark & Titus' meat market on Tejon street. The place has been decorated for the holidays, including a grand display of meats. Besides the nine h...d of corn-fed beef f...m Waters & Callaway's ranch which have been killed, dressed and handsomely scored, there are quantities of mutton, hogs, venison, antelope and game. All are artistically hung and the ... draped in elegance. Stark & Titus have in their employ at present M... ... W. Flanagan, Andrew Stelr and Harry Moore, three of the best b...chers in the state

Wilbur & Wolf's big advertisement in Sunday's Gazette attracted an immense amount of attention by the ...ture, and the comment was frequent that "the Gazette's ads are becoming quite metropolitan." This enterprising firm with its brand new stock is pushing things, and the announcement in the big ad that a great bargain sale would begin immediately, had the effect of crowding the store with customers yesterday. To facilitate the work of the store during the present rush all the holiday goods have been moved to the second floor, where they can be better inspected To purchasers of toys the firm offers 20 per cent discount, and upon silks and dress goods 10 to 20 per cent discount.
